Description 1. The title screen is just the background of woodburrow. 2. The saves are invisible but still function normally. 3. Ladder swap zones are very blurry but still playable . 4. when you fall into certain parts of the level, the game thinks your out of bounds and keeps teleporting you back up. 5. when buying upgrades using the upgrade pod, sometimes the bottom and top upgrades get mixed up, if you have a p2 they're upgrades will also be mixed up with your skylander, but if you buy the upgrades they will still function normally as im aware. 6. and of course there all the portal bugs. (portal disconnecting mid-game and getting the skylanders stuck without letting you change them, the portal not getting detected at all, etc.) if i can, i will update this thread with any bugs i find in the future.
